Dream Foods International, LLC Unveils New Organic Products
Volcano Grenadine Burst® and New Size, Single-Serve Italian Volcano® Line
Natural Products Expo East 2013
Baltimore, MD, Booth #2711

Santa Monica, September 20, 2013 – Dream Foods International, LLC, (www.dreamfoods.com), a specialist in organic juices from Sicily, is launching its new organic Volcano Grenadine Burst® as a healthy alternative to existing grenadine products available on the market. Made without artificial colors or flavors, the 3.4oz (100 ml) squeeze bottle of grenadine is USDA organic.

“Today, many of the traditional grenadine products still contain high fructose corn syrup, chemical colors and preservatives. Those types of ingredients are no longer acceptable to many consumers,” stated company President and Founder, Adriana Kahane. This led Dream Foods International to develop an organic alternative. “The natural ingredients in Volcano Grenadine Burst® make it an appropriate addition to the Volcano Burst® line that consumers are already buying,” Kahane continued.

Dream Foods International is also responding to the growing demands of the organic food market by launching its new line of organic juices in an 8.45 ounce (250mL) glass bottle. Launching the convenient new size follows the success of the family-sized bottles. The new single-serve Italian Volcano® Blood Orange and Tangerine Juices, and Italian Volcano® Lemonade and Limeade, are certified USDA organic and made without artificial colors or flavors.

“Our organic juices have become favorites, and now they are available in a portable size. The 250mL serving is perfect for a lunchbox, event, or a grab-and-go option for busy professionals,” said David Dalessandro, Sales Director at Dream Foods.

“The Natural Products Expo East show will be a great venue to showcase these new products and to reach out to retailers of all sizes,” continued Dalessandro.

The suggested retail of Italian Volcano® Blood Orange and Tangerine Juice in an 8.45 oz. size is $3.29. The Lemonade and Limeade suggested retail is $2.99.

The suggested retail of Volcano Grenadine Burst® is $1.69 (3.4oz). It features a tri-lingual label that is Canadian compliant and includes English, French and Spanish text.
