How to bring a “Healthy Sparkle to Holiday Menus.”

Santa Monica, December 1, 2011 – Dream Foods International, LLC, (www.dreamfoods.com), a specialist in organic citrus juices, recognizes that while more families are moving towards organic foods, they are looking for ways to bring healthier dishes to the holiday menus. There is the myth that the only way to have flavor, it has to have butter. Owner and Founder of Dream Foods International, Adriana Kahane has always recognized the importance of bringing flavorful and healthy dishes to the dinner table even during the holiday season. With a great respect to tradition, more traditional recipes are being made with a new twist. The American pallet is becoming more sophisticated and at the same time, consumers are more than ever looking for healthy options for their diets without breaking the bank. Dream Foods is excited to share their ideas on how their traditional products can be used for traditional holiday recipes with an organic twist!

Italian Volcano® Blood Orange Brussels Sprouts

Ingredients:

1/2 cup Italian Volcano® Blood Orange Juice
30 Brussels sprouts (halved)
1/2 cup toasted walnut pieces
1 tbsp. coconut oil or olive oil
2 tbsp. soy sauce
Fine ground sea salt to taste
Fresh black pepper to taste

Instructions:

Mix Italian Volcano® Blood Orange Juice with soy sauce and set aside. Place oil in skillet and warm over medium-high heat and add the halved Brussels sprouts to skillet. Sear all sides of the sprouts by turning them in the skillet. When the sprouts are bright green with brown spots, add juice mixture into the pan and cover immediately. Reduce heat and let simmer for 5 minutes. Remove from heat when sprouts are penetrable with a knife, leaving firmness to the sprouts. Add toasted walnuts and season with salt and fresh black pepper to taste with a gentle toss. Enjoy!

Italian Volcano® Blood Orange & Lime Martini
